

This month's focused healing was deeply profound on many layers. In this video, I am sharing some of the energetic insights I discovered while holding the healing. At one point I worked on aspects contributing to shot stress and adverse reactions such as toxicity, stress, and noise in the collective field. I also strongly felt the need for forgiving the times we live in and forgiving policy makers, healthcare, yourself and anything and everything that may be creating stress for you right now. Immunity is a function of stability and coherence. It is really important to let things go.

You can purchase this healing until January 30th, 2021 at this link.

This healing will not be available to purchase after January 30th.

It will permanently become a part of the Chakra Bliss Vault Membership library. You can find out more about it and become a member here.