

What if you only need love to shift and change your chakra states and create a world and life that is beautiful? In this interview, I am sharing two personal stories that illustrate how you can create beauty through love despite any circumstance you find yourself in. This was an interview with Kris Nichole for the Everyday Vixen Summit. I can guarantee that it will change your perspective. You can watch it here.