

What if you could collapse time and dream all you need into life? What if you don't have to go from where you are (point A) to where you want to be (point B) but there's another way? What if it is much easier and more fun than you have ever imagined?

In an Intuitive Time Collapsing Reading that is exactly what we'll do. In the quantum world, there is no point A or B. All possibilities exist here in the now. What I will help you with is deeply understand where you are and where you want to go and how to collapse the distance between the two.

You will go back to the basics like a child, a paper and crayons. You will draw where you are and where you want to be. Together we will dive into these drawings the same way I help people dive into Tarot cards, birth charts, or inner child guidance. The images your inner children create are really powerful. They will tell us your story, your longings, and what your inner being knows but your conscious-self doesn't yet know.

I have facilitated Intuitive Time Collapsing Readings about family dynamics, career steps, life goals, romantic goals, and more. Often what you think you wish for isn't actually what you are wishing for. Through intuitive collaboration, I will show you exactly what you need to realize or do to get to where you want to go quicker, easier, and with a lot more grace and trust.

I am offering a 44% off my intuitive reading services until April 1st.

“Damla read for me with confidence, care, and certainty. Damla has a way of asking the questions that get down the root of what it really is you want to know. I would highly recommend an intuitive reading with Damla.”
